1. This Action is the answer to an after-final rejection amendment filed on 4/04/05.
2. Independent claims 1, and 24 are amended; claims 1-14, and 24 are pending in this application. Claims 15-23, and 25-52 were canceled.
3. The examiner withdraws the rejections mailed on 1/03/2005 due to said After-Final Amendment.

Allowable Subject Matter & Reasons for Allowance

4. Independent claims 1, and 24 have common limitations that are patentable over the closest cited references of Huberman (US Pat. 5,826,244), Lobiondo (US Pat. 5,287,194), Sevcik et al. (US Pat. 6,330,542), Shiota (US Pat. 6,324,521), Chui (US Pat. 6,657,702), Enomoto (US Pat. 5,974,401), and Tannenbaum (WO 99/41899) because those prior art do not anticipate nor fairly and reasonably teach an interactive arrangement for a market portal (a bidding site) collecting, and storing market information, which includes print services and pricing information from a service provider, and obtaining selection criteria from an interactive shop for selecting service providers, wherein the market portal selecting a print service provider based on those interactive criteria and said market information. The above prior art also do not teach about adjusting selection criteria (for user's biddings) of service providers.
5. Dependent claims 2-14 are allowed because they are dependent of allowable claim 1.

Conclusion

6. Claims 1-14, and 24 are patentable; claim 24 is renumbered as claim 15.
7. Remarks:

- A hit of US Pat. 6,330,542 (Sevcik et al.) is found during Forward Reference Search; however, this reference shows a different configuration (see Sevcik et al., Fig. 1A, 9-13) to INTERACTING ACTIVITIES of pending claims for “Interactive Photo Shop “ (Fig.4 ref.402), “Photo Service Provider” (Fig.4 ref.404), and “a Patron” (Fig.4 ref.401)
  - A hit of US Pat. 5,287,194 (Lobiondo) is found during Backward Reference Search; however, this reference only teaches different available printers for different print jobs (US class. 358/296,1.15 and 399/1); it does not teach a claimed environment where different printing providers for selection are interactively participated (US class 705/26).
  - PCT/EP01/08318 – published. on 4/07/2002 (Chiarabini et al.) does not have a proper priority date for a rejection, although it was filed on 7/21/2000 (GB 0017911.9).
